7.00pm - 8.00pm This week's Tuesday prayer meetings:
joining London's "A Call to Pray" - in the Chapel

On this evening in London there has been "A Call to Pray for our nation" because of "a spate of terrorist attacks affecting innocent bystanders, as well as outrage caused by the Grenfell Tower fire. These - on top of the uncertainty brought about by the recent general election and Brexit negotiations - have all served to promote hatred, fear and suspicion among different communities." This prayer meeting gives those who want to the opportunity to join their prayers on these issues with those of the people of London. Spread the word.
