Other notices:

Poppy display at Kingsway:

As you may already know, our knitting needles have been very busy this year. The display of knitted poppies will be going up on the fence of Kingsway Methodist Church on the 4th November and will be there until the afternoon of the 11th November. On the 10th November, the church will be open from 10am – 4pm to serve tea/coffee and cake. If you would like to come and see the poppies and perhaps take one home with you, donations will be for the Wellingborough branch of the Royal British Legion. With 3500 poppies on display, it should be a sight worth seeing.

Ladies Social Group:

On the 17th November we are heading out for breakfast to The Ringstead Mill, leaving from the Church at 9am. Please sign name and breakfast preference on the sheet at the back of the church. Lifts can be provided.

Jayne Horne needs to let the Mill know the breakfast pre-orders by a week before

All LADIES welcome, including family and friends.

Nene Valley Circuit Choir:

The choir, accompanied by Accord, will be performing a work by Joseph Martin called Legacy of Faith. This was written specifically with remembrance in mind, for the first anniversary of the 9/11 attacks. You have two opportunities to hear them.

They will be at Raunds Methodist Church on Wednesday 7th November at 7.30pm and again at Kingsway Methodist Church on Wednesday 14th November. Please give your support.

1st December:

We will be holding an extended coffee morning from 10am - 2pm. There will be turkey rolls on offer at lunch time and various stalls, including some craft stalls and a Christmas gift stall. Donations for this would be much appreciated.

"Samaritan's Purse Shoebox Appeal".

This is our annual effort to send gifts to children around the world in time for Christmas. Boxes and leaflets are now available in the Cafe area, please help yourself. Talk to Sonia or Ruth R to find out more. Boxes should come back in early in November. Date to be confirmed.
