Dates for your diary:

24th January: The property committee will be meeting at 10am in the David Room.

1st February: First coffee morning of the year in the Chapel at 10am.

5th February: at 2pm the Community Cinema will be showing 'Downton Abbey' in the Goliath Hall.

11th February: the events team will be meeting at 10.30am in the David Room.

13th February: Church Council meeting at 7.30pm in the Chapel.

Everyone and Evangelist:

The District Reimagine conference will be here on Saturday February 29th from 10am until 3.30pm. The main speaker will be Steve Wild who is a gifted evangelist and will share with us why he thinks we are all called to be evangelists. There will also be a session on digital evangelism. Please see the poster on the board in the Living Well Café for details of how to book, or give your name to Wendy and she will arrange a block booking with Kim. This is an exciting opportunity for our church and district so please come if you can. We may also need some help with the provision of drinks on the day, further details to follow.
