Good Morning and I hope you are all staying well. Rain!!! What a relief.... I must admit that I do not cope well in very hot weather so I am much happier today.

Staying in touch:

Our FaceBook page continues to reach out to those in our community. Thank you Sophie for all your hard work with this. It is an excellent way to show God's love and the message we have to share with those of our town and beyond.

The church phone is available to leave a message if you need to have a chat and one of our pastoral leaders will get back to you (don't forget to leave a number!). The phone is set up for remote access to the messages. The number is at the top of this newsletter.

If you would like to submit anything for the newsletter I would be delighted to hear from you.

Worship and Prayer:

I shall be sending out the service sheet for this coming Sunday with this newsletter. They shall also be popped onto the website for anyone who wishes to access it that way. The service this week is provided for us by David Hudson.

I thought today I would share something with you that I have fastened to my fridge door at home (remembered to bring it with me!) I shall not add any thoughts but will leave you to ponder these words of Mother Theresa:

People are often unreasonable, illogical and self centred.

Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish ulterior motives.

Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you may win false friends and true enemies.

Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you.

Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building, someone may destroy overnight.

Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, people may be jealous.

Be happy anyway.

The good you do today people will often forget tomorrow.

Do good anyway.

Give the world the best you have and it may not be enough.

But give the world the best you have anyway.

You see, if the final analysis, it is all between you and God.

It was never between you and them, anyway.

Family news:

I have not been sent any family news today, so I assume that everyone is okay and coping alright.....
